I will prepare a project on the changing shopping habits and the development of e-commerce during the pandemic period. I will use the articles written on the subject and especially the research of e-commerce experts and digital marketing experts. I attended many trainings and seminars on this subject.. Since I haven't done research yet, I can't give information about what data to use.